Subject: The Monarchy is Alive!!

Dear ENA Members,

It is with a profound sense of relief that I announce that the conclave of the Etuboms' Traditional Council re-elected His Eminence, Edidem Ekpo Okon Abasi Otu V, as The Obong of Calabar over the weekend. Kindly read the link below from a Vanguard article dated 2-5-12:

<http://www.vanguardngr.com/2012/02/conclave-re-elects-obong-of-calabar/>

There will be solidarity "Million Efik March" to the Cross River State High Court in Calabar on Tuesday, February 7, 2012. This march will begin from the Botanical Gardens at 9 am.

We are appealing to all ENA members to contact their families in Calabar to attend this peaceful march as a show of support for the Efik Monarchy and the members of the Etuboms' Traditional Council upon their arrival at the court to present the re-election result to Justice Obojar Ogar, in compliance with his ruling on January 30, 2012.

Long Live The Edidem!

Long Live Efik Eburutu!

Long Live Efik National Association!!

Long Live The United States of America!!!

Chief (Prince) Paul Orok Basse-Duke
National President, ENA
